

STARTER LIST FOR WHAT TO BRING

FOR MAKING ART:

There is no art supply store nearby, so bring everything you will need to be creative for several days. Bring:

Drop cloth for protecting the floor and a cover for protecting the tabletop.

Extension cord/power strip for hair dryer, lamp, chargers, etc at your table.

Plein air supplies and seating

Paper towels, masking tape, trash bag for your area.

Name tag to wear each day

Some campers bring:

- Extra desk light for evenings or dark days
- Headphones
- Easel
- Favorite chair or stool, or a cushion to add to available folding chair.
- Flashlight or headlamp for the trip back to the cabin or restroom after dark.

MAKE YOUR CABIN COMFORTABLE:

All cabins have beds with mattress cover, simple furniture, general lighting, and electricity. You bring:

Bedding your way. (beds are either queen or full), pillow(s), towels, and/or other linens.

Some add sheets, use a sleeping bag, add a foam mattress topper.

Additional mattress pad to enhance sleeping is a great idea.

Small rug to place bedside

Bathmat and rubber thongs for showering

All toiletries, including hairdryer and box of tissue

Small lamp for bedside and/or book-reading light

Bottled water for the room (only water is allowed in the cabins)

NOTE: Rustic Cabin campers: Most bring a "container" to avoid middle of the night trip to community bathroom. Search for "camping toilet" to find collapsible models and more.

IN THE LODGE:

Coffee, tea, hot water and condiments are available 24/7.

WHAT TO WEAR:

PaintOut is a time for relaxing and creativity without judgement. Most campers pack lightly and simply rotate their paint clothes. No one notices or cares, so dress for your best art making.
